Crackdown on Lumumba Men in Congo

BY MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo
(AP) — Steel-helmeted Congolese soldiers look over government offices and Leopoldville radio station today in a new crackdown on supporters of ousted Premier Patrice Lumumba.

Col. Joseph Mobutu, who proclaimed a military coup on Sept.
14, failed then to take over the government machinery—suddenly tightened his grip on the capital.

His soldiers had turned officials of the Lumumba government out of their offices in the government building, but this morning the Lumumba officials returned and resumed their work as though nothing had happened.

An hour later a heavily armed unit of the Congolese army, in khaki uniforms and helmets stormed into the building.

All the Lumumba officials were expelled for the second time. A captain of Mobutu's troops locked all the office doors and collected the keys. He said the Technical Commission appointed by Mobutu Tuesday to run the government until the end of the year would be in possession of the offices.

Crowds of Congolese officials gathered in the street outside the building—built as the headquarters of the former Belgian colonial administration—but were not molested by the soldiers.

It appeared that Mobutu was using units from the Thysville garrison for his crackdown.

While one unit took over the government building, another surrounded the headquarters of the National Security Police on Avenue Lippens—exactly opposite the official premier's residence where Lumumba is living under protection of U.N. Ghana troops.

Security chief Charles Moshungu and his staff were ordered out of the building to make way for security officials of the Technical Commission.

Another army unit took over the radio station from troops of the Leopoldville garrison. The radio has been under Mobutu's control since the military coup but possibly he considered the Thysville troops more reliable.

The commission will be headed by Jean Bomboko, foreign minister in the anti-Lumumba government of Joseph Ileo.

Ileo, chosen by president Joseph Kasaubu two weeks ago to succeed Lumumba as premier, has not made any serious effort to take over the government offices.

Bomboko, a former Lumumba supporter, currently is serving as Ileo's representative at the U.N.
General Assembly in New York.

Russians Tell of a Rare Operation

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet
news agency Tass told today of a rare operation in which a surgeon replaced the defective lens of a human eye with a flexible glass substitute.

The operation was performed on Lena Petrova, school girl blind in one eye since the age of 2.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party organ, reported that the girl regained half the sight in the blinded eye seven days after the operation and 70 per cent vision in 12 days after.

State Faces Pink Bollworm Quarantine

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas faces a statewide federal pink bollworm quarantine unless the state Plant Board can work out a compromise acceptable to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

L.P. Curl of Washington, D.C., assistant director of the USDA pest control division, told Plant Board members Tuesday that they had been warned in April that if bollworm restrictions were changed the state might face a federal quarantine.

The Plant Board in August reduced the quarantine area in Clay, Greene and Craighead counties and otherwise liberalized boll-worm restrictions. It acted after complaints by state legislators about strict regulations.

A compromise possibility offered by Curl would allow farmers in the three-county area to take home seed for planting after treatment at cotton gins. If no boll worms were found by Dec. 31, the farmer could use the seed.
But if the pest were found, farmers would be bound to return seed for further treatment.

L.G. Black of Corning, a ginner in the area, said "I think that they (the 17 ginners in the area) will work with you in this."

Board Chairman J.M. Spicer of Stuttgart asked Black to set up a meeting with the ginners.

Curl did not promise that this would be acceptable, but said the USDA "may go along."

After the Board eased bollworm restrictions, Tennessee, Mississippi and Missouri all objected to the USDA. These states have none of the pests.

Local Band Performs at Big Game

The performance by 17 Arkansas high school bands at half-time of the U. of A.-O. S. U. football game last Saturday night in Little Rock was outstanding.

Hope High had about 65 members of the senior band who participated in the salutes to John Barnhill and Frank Broyles and helped form the words "Barny" and "Frank."

What was most remarkable was the fact that the 17 bands practiced together only once before the performance. Hope was honored to receive the invitation to appear at the half-time show and prove to be worthy of it, according to band director Jon Barbarotto.

Rocket Hurlled Up to Study Radiation

BY HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)
— The Air Force's new Blue Scout space rocket blasted off today in an effort to hurl a radiation study package 16,000 miles into space.
The experiment could lead to a means of detecting nuclear explosions high above the earth.

The 40-foot, four-stage rocket departed from this missile test center at 8:02 a. m. Tucked in its nose was a 32.8 pound payload packed with instruments to probe radiation mysteries in space.

An announcement 12 minutes after launching said that all four stages ignited successfully. There was no immediate word on whether the Blue Scout was on its proper course or whether signals were being received from the payload.

This was the first flight for the Blue Scout, which the Air Force
L.P. Curl of Washington, D.C., is trying to develop as an all-purpose vehicle for launching scientific probes and satellites.

If successful, the payload will travel 16,000 miles away from earth in about 3 1/2 hours. Then it will begin a 3 1/2-hour descent that will end with its burning up in the earth's atmosphere over the south Atlantic about 7,000 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral.

Col. Donald A. Stine, project director, emphasized the main purpose of this flight was to test the rocket and that operation of the payload was a secondary goal.

Success of the payload could be a major step in a long-range program designed to detect firing of a nuclear device.

The feasibility of concealing a nuclear explosion by firing it at high altitude was demonstrated by the United States in 1958 when it "detonated" three low-yield, atom-bombs over the Atlantic at altitudes up to 300 miles. The world apparently did not know about these shots until months later.

That project, called Argus, spread a radioactive curtain around the world outside the earth's atmosphere but within its magnetic field. The magnetic field prevented radioactive particles from falling to earth.

The Argus tests indicated a sort of electronic veil can be thrown around the earth to cut radar and radio reception. This veil could knock out a nation's warning system and hide the advance of attacking missiles or bombers.

A detection system could be established by launching payloads like those flown today at regular intervals.

Police Break Up Group of Hecklers

NEW YORK (AP) — Club swinging police and riotous demonstrators battled into the night following Tuesday's opening session of the United Nations General Assembly.

The brawls swirled around midtown streets as task forces of police and mounted patrolmen moved swiftly to curb the disorders.

Eggs and lighted firecrackers were hurled at police—who pushed and shoved and fought back with clubs.

At least three demonstrators were injured and four arrested.
The heavy police security was praised by most New Yorkers—but damned by some Communist bloc chieftains.

Stealing the spotlight Tuesday was the meeting in Harlem between Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Cuba's Prime Minister Fidel Castro. The contrastive leaders talked for 22 minutes in Castro's hotel, then emerged with their arms around each other's shoulders.

The large assembly of Communist bloc leaders—and the Castro encourage—gave police their biggest security headache. About 8,000 police have been assigned to protect them.

Helping make matters more trying for hard working police was the large melange of foreign-born residents in this city of eight million. Many came from East European countries and lands now under Communist rule.

The worst of the street brawls erupted near the U.N. headquarters and the Soviet headquarters for its U.N. mission.

In one three-hour melee near the U.N., mounted policemen charged about 50 Ukrainian and Hungarian pickets. Many were thrown to the ground.

Fists and nightsticks flew later when police and mounted patrolmen tangled with demonstrators near the Soviet building.

Luncheon Is Planned for Latin Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will give a luncheon for representatives of 18 Latin American countries in New York Thursday after his speech to the United Nations General Assembly.

Announcing this today, the White House said the guests will be officials of each of the Latin American countries except Cuba and the Dominican Republic.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty pointed out that the United States now has no diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic and said "We certainly are not going to invite Cuba."

The luncheon will be in the embassy of the United States to the United Nations on the 42nd floor of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Hagerty did not rule out meetings with other government leaders in New York. He left indefinite the time for the President's return to Washington, although he said it probably would be before evening.

However, it was learned that Eisenhower has no plans to succeed President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic in New York Thursday.

Eisenhower is to return to New York next Monday, for a night speech, and Hagerty pointed out he would have a free afternoon there during which meetings with other government leaders attending the U. N. session might be arranged.

men tangled with demonstrators

Guard Tightens With Vague Threat on the Life of Khrushchev

President to Hurl New Open Sky Challenge

BY MAX HARRRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)
— President Eisenhower will challenge the Soviet Union with a revised version of his open skies plan and will offer some sort of program to aid the emerging new nations of Africa, when he addresses the U.N. General Assembly Thursday.

Diplomatic sources at the United Nations, reporting this today, said the President's open skies program will be similar to the proposal he would have put forward in Paris last May, but the summit meeting not exploded before it could get started.

The open skies plan, designed to guard the world against the surprise attack which could signal nuclear war, envisages high-altitude reconnaissance over military installations and movements. The Soviet rejected a similar Eisenhower proposal at the Geneva summit five years ago.

The details of the President's revision of the plan have not been disclosed, but in some quarters it was reported the President was thinking in terms of direct U.N. supervision over craft flown for this purpose by pilots of the respective nations involved.

The President also is expected to repeat other challenges leveled the Soviets in previous debates.
Among these is an American plan aimed at shutting all plants manufacturing fissionable materials for war purposes.

The United States made such a proposal last month. It offered to set aside 3 tons of U235 the basic raw material for nuclear bombs, for peaceful purposes. If the U.S.S.R. would do likewise, the United States expressed willingness to match the Soviet Union in a one-by-one shutdown of major plants producing fissionable materials for weapons use.

Under this plan all future manufacture of fissionable materials eventually would be devoted to peaceful purposes. The transfer of the 33 tons of U235 would be taken directly from present weapons materials stockpiles, thus cutting down on the production of such war materials.

Much speculation centered about the President's speech. The New York Herald Tribune said the President planned to be specific, while casting the United Nations in a leading role in contrast with Soviet attempts to circumvent the world organization.

The President, it said, will urge that the United Nations be given greater responsibility than ever in a wide range of affairs, in what amounts to a vote of confidence in the U.N.

No Assets in Subsidiaries

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three
subsidiaries of the bankrupt Arkansas Business Development Corp. have "no particular assets," according to Ike Murry, trustee in bankruptcy for ABCDC.

In a petition filed in Pulaski Chancery Court Tuesday, Murry said investigation of Lenders Service Co., Financial Securities Co. and American Research and Development Corp. had turned up only some furniture and supplies owned by Lenders. But Murry said this was mortgaged to the parent ABDC for more than its face value.

Chancellor Murray O. Reed signed an order allowing Murry $1,600 for his services as a receiver for the firms from May 27 until July 6, when ABCDC and Lenders were thrown into bankruptcy in federal court.

Would Clear Up Confusion in Davis Case

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The president of Arkansas AMN College's Alumni Association has called on the school's Board of Trustees to clear up confusion by discharging President Lawrence
A. Davis immediately.

Dr. C. A. Flowers of Pine Bluff made the request in a letter mailed Tuesday to C. E. Larrison of Portland, chairman of the board.

After firing Davis, Flowers suggested, the board should hold a full-scale investigation of the president's 3 1/2 years as head of the Negro school and make results of the investigation public.

Administration of the school should be turned over to a board of control, Flowers suggested.

The Board of Trustees last week asked Davis to resign, effective at mid-term. The request came after a charge of irregularities in handling of AMN finances was aired by a legislative auditor.

Since the ouster move, AMN students have demonstrated in Davis' support and the faculty has issued a statement backing him.
Other Negro groups have rallied to his aid.

Flowers said he was prompted to act from "alarm at the terrible plight of Negro youths in their quest for higher educational opportunities."

He said that AMN was in no position to have turmoil shortly before the school's 1961-62 budget is to be studied. He noted that one legislator already has said the college should "clean-up or close up."

Flowers' letter was critical of no one. He referred to asking that Davis be fired as a "painful duty" because the welfare of the college was at stake.

Larrison was not available today to say whether he received the letter or what his reaction would be.

N. Y. Police Doubts Threat Is Genuine

NEW YORK (AP) — A vague roundabout death threat against Russian Premier Khrushchev was reported by the police department today. A high official was quick to voice doubt it was genuine.

"The official, who declined use of his name, said it was possibly a Red propaganda trick to cause confusion and action that would discredit the police and hamper the working press."

The gist of the threat, as outlined by police, was that:

"The Swiss branch of Amtorg, Russian trading corporation, reported that a group of former agents of the Gestapo—Hitler's deadliest secret police—planned to assassinate Khrushchev by 'posing as journalists' with a gun hidden in a camera or microphone."

The police department official said the same kind of yarn was "planted by the Russians" in foreign newspapers. Two months ago before Khrushchev announced he was coming to the United States.

Equipment of newsmen covering Khrushchev was inspected today but the police official said it was through no lack of trust in them.

By RELMAN MORIN UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

— A Soviet agency reported today an attempt would be made on Nikita S. Khrushchev's life. But smugglers and apparently incon-cerned, the energetic Soviet Premier showed up at the U.N. General Assembly well ahead of delegates from other nations.

The assembly opened its session shortly after 11 a.m. EDT to hear traditional speeches by representatives of newly admitted nations, most of them from Africa. But critical debate on some of the cold war's deadliest issues loomed ahead.

Amtorg, the Soviet trading corporation, told police an attempt would be made on Khrushchev's life with a gun hidden either in a camera or microphone.

Police immediately began examining photographic and broadcasting equipment of newsmen reporting the premier's activities.
But there were no extraordinary precautions taken as the premier entered the U.N. assembly building.

The report by Amtorg capped a series of violence in New York streets set off by the appearance here of top Communist leaders and Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.
Castro remained at his hotel in Harlem. President Tito of Yugoslavia was closeted at his U.N.
mission working on the speech he will deliver to the assembly Thursday. Tito is expected to make a bid for leadership of the so-called neutralist nations.

But world attention will focus Thursday on President Eisenhower and what he has to say about aid to the new nations of Africa, safeguards against a spark setting off World War III, and his responses to Khrushchev's challenges on disarmament.

The President will submit his own challenge with a revised version of his "open skies" plan and will offer a formula for giving aid to Africa, diplomatic sources said.

Only Cuba and the Dominican Republic will be absent when the president is host Thursday to a luncheon for representatives of 18 other Latin American nations at the embassy residence of U.S.
Delegate James J. Wadsworth on the 42nd floor of the plush Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Eisenhower will remain in New York overnight for talks with other government leaders attending the historic assembly session. But

Picks Porkers, Baylor, A&M as Winners

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Traditionally, this is the first day of fall. But the fall you get on the calendar is nothing like the fall you can get trying to pick football winners.

Last week's figures: 20 winners, 7 losers, 300.

Mississippi over Kentucky: The Kentuckians have nothing to compare with the Jake Gibbs to Johnny Brewer battery.

Syracuse over Boston University: Last year, en route to their national championship, Syracuse won this game 40-0. It could be as much this time.

Washington over Idaho: Little more than a workout for the Washington Rose Bowl kings.

Illinois over Indiana: Fullback Bill Brown starts Coach Pete Elliott off on the right foot at Illinois.

Alabama over Tulane: Tulane last week defeated California. Now that Alabama has defeated Georgia, it must be considered a Southeast Conference title threat.

Michigan State over Pittsburgh: This one is on TV and it should be worth seeing. The Spartans' crop of sophomores reputed to be the best in the big ten.

Elsewhere: Kansas over Kansas State; Purdue over UCLA; Wake Forest over Clemson; Iowa over Oregon State; Nebraska over Minnesota; Oklahoma over North-western; Texas over Maryland; Georgia Tech over Rice; Columbia over Brown.

Friday night: Washington State over Denver; Iowa State over Detroit; Mississippi Southern over Hardin-Summons; San Jose over Brigham Young.

Saturday: EAST: Army over Boston College; Cornell over Colgate; Dartmouth over New Hampshire; Harvard over Holy Cross; Lehigh

Arroyo Gets Credit for Aid to Yanks

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

There were a few scoffs in late July when the New York Yankees, looking for pitching help in the American League race, came up with Luis Arroyo, a little lefty reliever who had been pretty much of a so-so guy in the National League.

The Yankees were second, a game behind Chicago's White Sox, when they reached into the International League for Arroyo, who had worked for St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati in the NL. But they've won 38 of 68 since, and little Luis has figured in a third of those victories, which have sent New York four games in front with 10 to play.

Arroyo was credited with neither a decision nor an official game.

Bucks Need 5 Wins for First Flag in Years

The World Series opens in Pittsburgh's Forbes Field two weeks from today unless the Pirates plunge into the most complete stretch collapse in the National League since the tumble by save Tuesday night, but he was the guy who set up a 2-1, 11-inning victory over Washington that left the Yanks just six victories shy of a World Series date two weeks from today.

After the Yanks blew a 1-0 lead on a wild pitch in the ninth inning, Arroyo cut short the rally by relieving pinch-hitter Pete Whisenand, on a short fly, and Johnny Schmitz, on a strikeout.

With the bases loaded, he finished with 12-3 innings of hitless relief before the Yanks finally broke the tie on a bases-loaded error for their fifth straight victory.

That reduced New York's magic number to six over the Baltimore Orioles, who broke a second-place tie with the Chicago White Sox with a 4-3 decision over Boston.

But played four games behind New York, the Yanks' magic number is six, with 10 to play, Detroit whipped Cleveland 9-1 in the other AL game.

In the National League, Pittsburgh moved within five victories of staging the World Series opener at Forbes Field by sweeping a doubleheader from Philadelphia 7-1 and 3-2. Second-place St. Louis beat Los Angeles 3-2, but third-place Milwaukee was clobbered 9-0 by Cincinnati. San Francisco defeated Chicago's Cubs 5-2.

The Yankees, given a 1-0 lead on Mickey Mantle's 30th home run in the fourth inning, were rolling behind rookie Bill Stalford's four-hit shutout until the ninth. Then two singles and a walk loaded the bases, and a wild pitch by reliever Jim Coates tied it before Arroyo hustled in.

Baltimore, down 3-0, battled back with the help of Gus Triandos' 10th home run and broke a tie with two-out singles in the eighth by Gene Woodling, Jim Gentile and Brooks Robinson.

who was ducking away from a pitch when he bloomed a hit into right. Billy Hoft (2-1) was the winner in relief.

Dick Gernert, Lou Berberet and Al Kaline hammered home runs for the Tigers, who finished the season series with a 15-7 record over the Indians. Frank Lary (14-15) was the winner. Jim Perry (17-9) was the loser.

Ed Bailey and Roy McMillan combined for five RBI behind Hook (11-7), who faced just 29 men while beating the Braves.

Brooklyn's diving Dodgers of 1951 After breaking a tie on 1st Smith's eightinning home run in the second game for a 7-1 and 4-2 doubleheader, sweep at Philadelphia Tuesday night, the Bucs are within five victories of their first flag in 33 years.

With a 10-55 record and nine games to play, the Pirates can clinch it with five victories no matter what the hot-running St. Louis Cardinals do. The second-place Cards, who trail by six with 11 left, put away their 12th victory in 15 games with a 3-2, ninth-inning decision over Los Angeles.

Third-place Milwaukee tumbled eight games back as Cincinnati whipped the Braves 9-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Jay Hook. Any combination of Pirate victories and Milwaukee defeats totaling two eliminates the Braves, who play six of their remaining nine against the Bucs.

Sam Jones won his 17th with a five-hitter as San Francisco defeated Chicago's Cubs 5-2 in the other NL game.

The New York Yankees won their fifth in a row in the American League and closed in on a series date with the Pirates by beating Washington 2-1 in 11 innings. Baltimore broke a second-place tie with Chicago's idle White Sox with a 4-3 decision over Boston.

But played four games behind New York, the Yanks' magic number is six, with 10 to play, Detroit whipped Cleveland 9-1 in the other AL game.

Right-hander Bob Friend won his 17th in the opener for the Pirates, giving up seven hits, walking just one and striking out six for a season total of 178 that cracked a 48-year-old Pirate record.

While Bill Virdon drove in three runs with a homer, double a single in the first game, Bob Skinner's single drove in the winning run against loser Robin Roberts (10-16) in the second inning. Skinner then lined a pair of RBI singles for a 2-2 tie in the nightcap before Smith's 11th homer, off Jim Owens (4-13), broke it up.

Clem Labine (3-1) was the winner in relief of Harvey Radtke.

The Cards matched Pittsburgh's four-game streak after blowing a 1-0 lead on Norm Larker's two-run pinch single in the ninth. A two-out, broken-bat single by rookie Charley James then drove in two runs that beat Larry Sherry (14-9) after Ken Boyer's single and two walks loaded the bases.

Reliever Lindy McDaniel (12-4) was the winner in his 62nd game.

Ed Bailey and Roy McMillan combined for five RBI behind Hook (11-7), who faced just 29 men while beating the Braves.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 51

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. In addition to the powers granted by constitutional or statutory authority, cities of the first and second class may issue, by and with consent of a majority of the qualified electors of said municipality voting on the question at an election held for the purpose, bonds in sums and for the purposes approved by such majority at such election as follows:

For the payment of any indebtedness existing at the time of the adoption of this amendment; for the purchase of rights of way for construction of public streets, alleys, boulevards, and expressways, within the corporate limits of such municipality for the purchase, development and improvement of public parks, airports, flying fields, and recreational facilities located either within or without the corporate limits of such municipality; for the construction of sewers and comfort stations; for the purchase of fire alarm systems; for the purchase of street, police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the purchase of street and sewer cleaning equipment and apparatus; for the purchase of sites for, construction of, and equipment of city halls, auditoriums, court houses, prisons, libraries, hospitals, clinics, public abattoirs, incinerators or garbage disposal or sewage treatment plants; for building for the housing of street, police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the construction of viaducts and bridges; for the purpose of purchasing, extending, improving, enlarging, building, or construction of water works or light plants, and distribution systems (thereof) and for the purchase of sites for, improving or equipping harbor and river terminal facilities; and for the acquisition, development and construction of other municipal or public facilities and improvements. For the purchase, development and improvement of airports, waterworks, sewage disposal systems or any other municipal facilities which are, wholly or partially, located outside the boundaries of this State.

No bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall bear a greater rate of interest than six per cent per annum payable either annually or semi-annually; that is to say, the cost to the municipality for interest and discount on each issue of bonds shall not exceed six per cent per annum, and no bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall ever be sold except at public sale after twenty days advertisement in some newspaper having a bona fide circulation in the municipality issuing such bonds.

In order to provide for the payment of the bonds issued under the provisions of this amendment, and interest thereon, a special tax in addition to the legal rate permitted may be levied by municipalities on the real and personal taxable property therein. And any municipality issuing any bonds shall, before or at the time of doing so, levy a direct tax payable annually sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as the same matures, and also sufficient to pay and discharge the principal of all such bonds at their respective maturities. The special tax permitted by this amendment shall not be subject to any constitutional limitation; provided, however, the General Assembly may by legislative act limit the rate of such taxation, which limitation shall be effective only upon a special tax levied for the payment of bonds issued after the effective date of such legislative act.

Said bonds shall be serial, maturing annually after three years from date of issue, and shall be paid off as they mature, and no bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall be issued for a longer period than forty years.

It shall be the duty of the mayor and city council or other governing body established by law, to exercise supervision over the sale of any bonds, which may be voted by the people at an election held for that purpose, and they shall expend economically the funds so provided for the specified purposes for which they were voted.

Said election shall be held at such times as the city council may designate by ordinance, which ordinance shall specifically state the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and if for more than one purpose, provisions for balloting on each separate purpose; which ordinance shall state the sum total of the issue, the dates of maturity thereof and shall fix the date of election so that it shall not occur earlier than thirty days after the passage of said ordinance. Said election shall be held and conducted, and the result thereof declared under the law and in the manner now or hereafter provided for municipal elections, so far as the same may be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Notice of said election shall be given by the mayor by advertisement weekly for at least four times, in some newspaper published in said municipality and having a bona fide circulation therein; the last publication to be not less than ten days prior to the date of said election. Qualified voters of said municipality only shall have a right to vote at said elections. The result of said election shall be proclaimed by the mayor and the result, unless attacked in the courts within thirty days after the date of such proclamation. This amendment shall not repeal or affect any law relating to the organization of improvement districts.

SECTION 2. In addition to any existing Constitutional or Statutory provisions, and the powers granted under the provisions of this amendment, cities of the first and second class are hereby authorized to levy a tax on the real and personal property located within the corporate limits of five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed value of such property. That the revenues from such tax may be used for any municipal purpose now or hereafter authorized.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly may by legislative act allow cities of the first and second class to levy additional taxes for any municipal purpose, now or hereafter authorized, and such taxes or the rates thereof shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 4. The salaries of officials and employees of cities of the first and second class shall be fixed by the governing body of such cities, and the amounts of such salaries shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 5. This amendment shall be in force upon its adoption, and shall not require legislative action to put it into force and effect.

All provisions of this amendment, whenever, at any annual school election, a majority of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition shall approve the rate of tax levied proposed by the board of directors, then taxes shall be collected at the rate so approved. In the event the rate shall not be approved at any such election, then taxes shall be collected at the rate of the preceding annual school election, whichever rate shall be the lower figure. Provided, that no rate of tax levied shall ever be less than the aggregate of the rates of any continuing levies heretofore approved for the purpose of meeting the debt service requirements of the district, as sued and outstanding bonds, unless funds for the payment thereof shall have otherwise been specifically provided for.

SECTION 7. With respect to each school district, proposals for the issuance of bonds and for the collection of taxes at a continuing rate of levy for the payment thereof may be submitted by the board of directors for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at any annual school election, and upon petition of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district, or by resolution of the board of directors, such proposals may be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a special election called for the purpose of the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a school election shall approve the same, and no bonds or other evidences of debt hereafter issued by any school district shall be secured by a lien on the property of the district, and no district may pledge any of its revenues for the payment of said bonds or other evidences of debt, except revenues to be derived from the collection of taxes upon taxable property within the district under a continuing rate of levy approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at a school election. The principal amount of any proposed bond issue may include the estimated amount of interest to be due on such bonds during the first year.

SECTION 8. The manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of any school district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, effective immediately, from the then existing manner to any other manner authorized by Section 3 hereof, whenever the proposition of making such change shall be approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition at a special school election called for that purpose by the County Judge of the county in which all or the major portion of the land area within the territorial bounds of any such district is located. The County Judge shall call such special election within thirty days after the receipt by him: (a) of a petition containing the signatures of not less than a majority of the board of directors of the district; or (b) of petitions containing the signatures of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district. Provided, that not less than twelve months shall elapse after any such special election before another special election may be called for the purpose of again voting on the proposition of changing the manner of applying financial aid.

In each instance in which the manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, then all funds of the district, save only such funds as are necessary to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds, to meet its other contractual obligations, and to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district, shall be used for student education financial aid, and shall be applied equally for the benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 9. Either branch of the General Assembly at a regular or special session thereof may propose amendments to this measure, and if any such proposal be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house such proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at a special election called for the purpose by the Governor; and if a majority of the qualified electors votes at such special election to adopt such amendment the same shall be operative on and after the 30th day after the election at which it is approved, unless otherwise specified in the amendment. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit the power of the General Assembly to submit proposed amendments to this measure as provided by Section 22 of Article 19 of the Constitution of this State.

SECTION 10. The provisions of this measure are hereby declared to be severable.

SECTION 11. Article 14 and Amendments Nos. 11 and 40 of the Constitution of this State are hereby repealed.

SECTION 12. This amendment shall be self-executing, and its provisions shall be treated as mandatory, but laws shall be enacted by the General Assembly to facilitate its operation.

SECTION 13. This amendment shall take effect and be in full force on and after the date of its approval at the November, 1960, General Election.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 52

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. Intelligence and virtue being the safeguards of liberty and bulwark of a free and good government, it is hereby declared to be the public policy of this State that every resident of this State between the ages of six and eighteen years may, as desired by them or their parents or guardians, receive gratuitous instruction; and that the manner of administering such aid can best be determined at the local level.

SECTION 2. Financial aid to carry out the aforesaid declared policy of the people of this State shall be raised at both the State and local levels through taxation now or hereafter authorized by law. Financial aid at the State level shall be provided in such amounts, and distributed to school districts under such formula, or formulas, as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, determine; and financial aid at the local level shall be provided in such amounts as shall from time to time be determined by the qualified electors of the respective school districts.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of each school district shall have the right to determine by their vote at a special election called for the purpose, the manner of applying the financial aid available for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years; and such instruction may be provided either: (a) through a system of free public schools, whereof the district will provide the physical plant, employ instructors, and do any and all things necessary to maintain a general, suitable and efficient system of free schools to be operated by the district; or (b) through student education financial aid whereof the district will apply all available funds for the equal benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 4. Subject to such limitations as may be imposed by law, exclusive jurisdiction for the government of each school district shall be vested in a board of directors.

SECTION 5. There is hereby levied and there shall be collected an annual per capita tax of one dollar from each resident of this State over the age of twenty-one years, and the proceeds thereof shall be used for educational purposes in such manner as is now or as hereafter may be provided by law.

SECTION 6. Not less than fifteen days next preceding each annual school election, the board of directors of each school district shall prepare, approve and make public a proposed budget of expenditures in which there shall be set forth the amount of funds determined by the board as being necessary to provide, during the next following fiscal year, gratuitous instruction for residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years. The proposed budget shall set forth the estimated amounts, respectively, of funds necessary: (a) to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds; (b) to meet its other contractual obligations; (c) to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district; and (d), in such detail as the board shall determine, the estimated amount of funds required for other educational purposes. From the total of the aforementioned requirements for the fiscal year shall be deducted the estimated amount of funds to be available to the district from State aid and from all other sources other than the local property tax, and the remainder as so determined shall be designated and known as the budget deficit. Based upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the territorial bounds of the district for the then current year, the board of directors shall determine the rate of tax levy necessary to provide, when applied to the amount of said assessed valuation, funds of sufficient amount to meet the aforesaid budget deficit; and the rate of tax levy as so determined shall be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors of the district at the next following annual school election.

SECTION 7. The proposed budget of the district voting on the proposition shall approve the rate of tax levy proposed by the board of directors, then taxes shall be collected at the rate so approved. In the event the rate shall not be approved at any such election, then taxes shall be collected at the rate of the preceding annual school election, whichever rate shall be the lower figure. Provided, that no rate of tax levied shall ever be less than the aggregate of the rates of any continuing levies heretofore approved for the purpose of meeting the debt service requirements of the district, as sued and outstanding bonds, unless funds for the payment thereof shall have otherwise been specifically provided for.

The principal amount of any proposed bond issue may include the estimated amount of interest to be due on such bonds during the first year.

SECTION 8. The manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of any school district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, effective immediately, from the then existing manner to any other manner authorized by Section 3 hereof, whenever the proposition of making such change shall be approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition at a special school election called for that purpose by the County Judge of the county in which all or the major portion of the land area within the territorial bounds of any such district is located. the program as something in "preventive diplomacy" designed to have help ready to keep any situation from getting out of hand, a situation already has become critical.

The New York Times also reported on President Eisenhower's speech, saying that he would renew his "open skies" proposal first suggested at the Geneva summit conference in 1955. The Soviets rejected it then.

The New York Daily News carried a similar story.

The Herald-Tribune said it has learned the United States has two ideas on the U.N. role in an "open skies" plan for guarding the world against surprise attack by sending up high-altitude reconnaissance planes.

The airplanes could be flown by pilots recruited by the U.N. and answerable to it. Or the planes could be flown by non-U.N. pilots but under some form of U.N. supervision.

In either case, the United States is prepared to donate the aircraft to be used.

Though no price tag has been placed on a plan for economic aid to Africa, officials see it as a big plan—perhaps as large as the recent $500 million proposed by the United States for raising living standards in Latin America.

Other proposals concerning Africa would: let new nations train their own troops through U.N. arrangements; administer the United States "food for peace" plan through the U.N. instead of through bilateral agreements between Washington and other countries; turn over some uranium-235 to underdeveloped nations in Africa and elsewhere to help build useful energy for industrial purposes.

Cuban Croup Walks Out of Medical Meet

BERLIN (AP)—A Cuban delegation headed by Health Minister Jose Ventura Machado walked out of the assembly of the World Medical Association today after a row with Belgian delegates over the Congo.

The Cubans proposed that the assembly condemn Belgian physicians who "abandoned their patients" in the Congo during the July disturbances.

"We killed? We have let ourselves be killed?" asked Dr. C. L. Kottelant of the Belgian Medical Federation.

Many of the physicians at the 14th general assembly joined in heckling the Cubans. The resolution was rejected by all except Cuba.

The Cubans walked out amid murmurs from other delegates annoyed at the introduction of political issues. No Soviet bloc countries were represented.

Another Cuban resolution, condemning U.S. "economic aggression" never came to a vote. In its final working session, the assembly chose Dr. Antonio Moniz Aragao of Brazil as its president for 1961-62. The next meeting, it decided, would be held in Rio de Janeiro in 1962.

One Killed, Two Hurt in Truck

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Alvin Hubbard, 44, of McCrory, was fatally injured today and two other McCrory men were hurt when their car hit the rear of a truck on state Highway 17, about 10 miles south of here.

Joe Stobaugh, 40, was hospitalized at Little Rock with serious injuries.

Edward Peebles, 31, was hospitalized here with a broken arm.

State Trooper Billy Bob Davis said the men's car hit a truck driven by Donaciano Dasquez, a Mexican farm laborer at Diaz in Jackson County.

Telephone Firms Plan Merger

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Merger of Perry County Telephone Co. into Perry Telephone Co. of Perryville was approved Monday by the Arkansas Public Service Commission.

The Commission previously had rejected a merger proposal as unsound. At the time Perry would have had to absorb a $40,000 debt with the merger.

Under the new proposal Perry will borrow $15,000 over a 10-year period.

Wants Poultry Trade Spurred

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., wants the State Department to lower trade barriers to encourage Europeans to buy more American poultry.

Fulbright said in a statement Monday that the barriers were set up during a dollar shortage which no longer exists. He noted that poultry is the third highest source of farm income and is the second largest income source in Arkansas.

West Germany, Fulbright said, has stepped up purchases of U.S. poultry from practically nothing in 1955 to nearly 38 million pounds last year. He said he thought other countries would do likewise "if given a fair chance."

Backing for Davis Sent to Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he has received two telegrams and one petition asking that Dr. Lawrence A. Davis be retained as president of Arkansas AM&N College.

The governor also said he has heard from a dozen other persons, mostly parents of students at AM&N, who have expressed concern about developments there.

Faubus said he doesn't become involved in the controversy because "it's a matter for the Board of Trustees to settle."

The board asked Davis to resign after a legislative audit committee report alleged mishandling of funds in a college scholarship account.

Shirt Factory Negotiations

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Negotiations are continuing toward location of a new shirt factory near Mountain Home, a member of a Marion-Baxter County industrial commission says.

The three commission members met Monday with Donald Cooper of New York, president of the Capital Shirt Corp. and the Mercury Shirt Corp., but said later that no contract had been signed yet.

The plant, to be known as the Mar-Bax Shirt Corp., would be financed by bonds issued by the two counties and would employ about 100 women.

Its eventual cost has been estimated at $450,000.

Telephone Merger

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Boone County Telephone Co., Inc., of Boone County has been authorized by the Arkansas Public Service Commission to extend its service lines in the Harrison and Bland areas.

THE GROSS PHASE OF THE THIRD DISTRICT LIVE-STOCK Show gets Thursday night and will continue through Saturday with all three performances starting at 8 o'clock in the Coliseum.

LEFT TO RIGHT IN PICTURE ARE T. M. SMITH, ALAN Cartwright, rodeo mascot, and E. McHood, the elder man of Ft. Worth, Texas ranch producers of this year's rodeo. The ranch produces from 35 to 40 rodeos each year. Both the owners are experienced and both contested many years. M-S has an outstanding string of stock, the kind that produces a wild and wooly rodeo.

DOROTHY DIX

He Says: Love Me, Love My Slang

By HELEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

I have been going with a man two years. Last winter he asked me to marry him and I agreed. He asked my parents' permission too. Even though I have no engagement ring, we intend to marry in May, 1961. There are a few complications.

Last March he went into the Army. In one of my letters I asked him not to use slang. His answer was as follows: "If I want to use slang, I will whether you like it or not. Stick that in your pipe and smoke it."

This really hurt. In a postscript to my next letter I asked for an apology. Again I quote him, "I don't want you to find that P.S. any more, or you can write yourself another partner."

This hurt me even more. Should I stop writing or write what I think? I might be wrong in making an issue of this. If I am, please say so. He is 23, I am 20. He is American, I am Canadian.—Obey

Dear Obey: It all sounds like a tempest in a teapot. Forget it! What's so wrong about slang any way? Used often enough, a slang word through usage becomes part of our general vocabulary and rates listing in the dictionary.

Dear Helen:

Seven years ago I went with a fellow I liked very much but married another guy. We'll call the first one Joe and the second Bill. Two years ago Bill and I separated. Now we are divorcing. I have a child by him.

After all these years Joe, who is having trouble with his marriage, has looked me up. I fear to see him for I've always loved him. The day after I married I knew this. But believe me I tried hard to make a go of the marriage. It was my husband, not I, who ran off.

Joe says I made a mistake and he knows it, and he says maybe God is trying to right something that was wrong. Could that be? Joe is still with his wife and a two-year old but comes to our town once a week. I'm going to see him again in two weeks. If I stayed out of his life, maybe his marriage would succeed. On the other hand, if it's doomed, then even my staying away won't help. I do love him. He asks me to be patient and things will work out.—Heal Troubled

Dear Real Troubled: What's done is done but all concerned would have been saved a lot of heartaches if you and Joe had known your own minds in the beginning. You certainly should not see him as long as he is married.

to another woman.

Dear Helen:

I am 15, and my problem concerns two girls. One is very nice and pretty, the other homely. The second one's father will not permit boys in their house. I am a guy, that dresses with the best of taste. I don't drink or smoke but I like fun. I drive my brother's car when I take my girl out. Which girl should I take—the one that loves everything or the homely one that can't do anything? Please, print this. I am sure other fellows have the same problem.—Chick

Dear Chick: On the basis of what you tell me, I would take out the pretty girl. I can't quite see why the homely one presents any problem at all, unless there is something you haven't told me.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "The Way to a Girl's Heart."

School Bomb Scare

BRYANT, Ark. (AP)—About 450 students were evacuated from the Bryant Junior and Senior High Schools Tuesday after a telephone bomb threat, but no bomb was found in a search of the four buildings.

Medical Plan to Take in 150,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—About 150,000 persons 65 years of age or older will be covered under a new federal-state medical care program for the aged, the state Welfare Department estimates.

Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams said Monday that the federal government will provide 80 cents for each 20 cents put up by the state; but that the amount of money the state actually gets will depend on the type of program adopted.

Adams said he thought a $3,300,000 estimate of the amount Arkansas would get was high. That figure was set by the federal Health, Education and Welfare Department.

THE EASTER DINNER BY DONALD DOWNES

(THE STORY: Ciccio, an Italian bricklayer working for the underground in 1944, has been asked to investigate activity at Cinecittà, where the Germans are building mysterious vehicles. He learns the objects are tanks made of wood. He returns to Rome with the information.)

Chapter III
At the door he found Donna Felice Cavo. "Carissima Felice! They kissed. 'Come in and close the door. I have Ciccio here.' She stepped in.

"You know, Luchino, I have never met your friend Ciccio. He's really the only person I'm so fond of him."

"He led her into the big, soft sofa rather than into the study."

"In this work it's better not to know anyone until you have to." "You make me feel like Mata Hari," she laughed.

"Well, you really are, you know. Especially now that you've taken to entertaining that fat German staff officer von Emmiger." They sat down together on a little sofa.

It's about Von Emmiger I really want to speak to you, but first, here's my information from the San Lorenzo Station today. She handed him a sheet of paper. "Not very important. I regret to say. Mostly replacements. And a big trainload of Allied prisoners went through from Cassino."

"Now about my fat German friend, Von Emmiger is coming to see me in his car from Kesselring's headquarters in Tivoli. As I told you, he usually brings a bulging brief case with him as well as packages of food for me. The brief case he even takes into the dining room with him, and every place he sits down he props it against his legs. It must be important."

"You're not proposing that you steal it?" "Yes, I am."

"You're mad! You're absolutely crazy! You'd have another thing in common with Mata Hari — you'd be shot. And you'd be tortured before being shot. Impossible! I absolutely refuse."

"Oh, it seems such a pity." They sat for a moment in silence. "Luchino, he comes out of my place about 11:30. Long after curfew. Haven't you someone who could — well, not kill him, but — anyway, get the brief case and then run away?"

"But his driver? He will be armed, too, probably with a machine-pistol." They sat silent for a few more minutes.

"Suppose... suppose I told him that tonight he could stay. Now don't get excited — I'm not going to let him. But suppose I tell him he can stay, and tell him to send his chauffeur away until tomorrow morning, and then at 11 o'clock I'll say I forgot to take the dog out before curfew. He'll offer to take him for me. He can go out after curfew."

"Well, done this way, on the spur of the moment, at the very last moment at that..."

"Luchino, I take that to mean yes. Now who's going to be the brief-case snatcher down on the street?"

"Somebody who's pretty expert at being out after curfew. Two somethings. I should say. And no one between the ages of 18 and 5, because otherwise, if they're caught out after curfew, they would certainly be packed off to Germany, to a labor camp, or worse."

Luchino, of course, was thinking of Ciccio. "Felice, let's go into the next room. I'll introduce you to your rival — Ciccio. He's 60."

A few minutes after nine Ciccio and Luchino were hurrying along the banks of the Tiber toward the

Nikita Acts Like Army Captive

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Just give your name, rank and serial number."

This instruction to soldiers captured by an enemy, to avoid disclosure of vital information, was followed pretty much Monday by Premier Nikita Khrushchev who wasn't captured but landed in unfriendly country.

The round Russian, as soon as he reached New York for today's session of the United Nations Assembly, whipped out a 1,500-word prepared statement, and began reading on the dock beside the ship which brought him.

When he was through he hadn't really disclosed much. He gave his name and rank. But the rest of what he said was simply a restatement of what was already known; he wanted to talk disarmament.

What else he'll try to do he kept to himself. The fact that he is accompanied by the Communist chiefs of all the Russian satellites indicates the pitch he makes in the United Nations will be out of the ordinary.

Khrushchev, who insulted President Eisenhower last May in the breakup of the summit conference, took another swipe at him but still left the door open for them to get together in New York.

He said that if Eisenhower scheduled to address the U.N. Thursday—doesn't make a "fancy speech" but wants to talk serious disarmament and peace, that's all to the good.

He seemed to be cold-shouldering the President when he then went on to say "I would like to voice the profound respect I feel toward the entire American people."

He could have paid this tribute to Eisenhower and the American people. But he didn't mention the President in this expression of feeling of "profound respect."

Earlier this year Khrushchev was on a campaign of belittlement of Eisenhower who now shows no intention of having direct dealings with the Russian again.

Last June 3 he said that when Eisenhower leaves the White House "we could make him an orphanage director. I am sure he will not hurt the children." The same day he referred to the President as "weak-kneed."

Since more than 20 heads of foreign governments will be at the United Nations this week—giving Khrushchev the greatest world forum he has ever enjoyed—he can be counted on to make the most of it.

Although he repudiated in his dock-side speech the idea he was coming here to make Soviet propaganda, his every move and word will be just that, no matter how good his intentions.

It will probably take two weeks to find out why Khrushchev really came here. The two weeks may become a propaganda circus.

Orders Military to End Activity

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Communist Pathet Lao said today all its armed units have been ordered to cease military activities in northern Laos.

The broadcast said the move was to reaffirm Pathet Lao's sincere support of the neutralist government of Prince Souvanna Phouma and the coup d'etat committee of Capt. Kong Le. The paratroopers recently overthrew the government of Premier Thao Somsanth and installed Phouma in his place.

An opposition, anti-Communist force led by Gen. Phoumi Nosavan several days ago threatened to overthrow Phouma's government.

The Pathet Lao said Nosavan's troops had carried out mopping up operations in Laos' northern province of Sam Neua, killing and arresting villagers and burning homes.

HEALTH HINTS

By DR. CHARLES JOHNSON "CHIROPRACTOR"

DO YOU KNOW

That your nervous system controls your health?
That mechanical defects of the body interfere with the normal workings of your nervous system?
That Chiropractors do not oppose medicine or surgery when absolutely necessary?
That Chiropractic does not claim to be a cure-all?
That Chiropractic is a modern revival of a system of healing employed in ancient times? That not only back conditions but more remote disorders of the body will respond to Chiropractic Adjustments. That it is untruthful to condemn before proper investigation? That it is not true to say "We did everything possible for him," unless Chiropractic was included.
